On now until November 30th, the Niagara-on-the-Lake Arts Collective Group Show will be on display at the Walker Room Gallery at the NOTL Pumphouse Arts Centre.

Perspectives is a dynamic exploration of the term - both as a core principle in drawing, and as an expression of the individual point of view.

The exhibition brings together a diverse range of artistic voices, each interpreting perspective through their own medium, style, and lens, offering viewers new ways to experience depth, dimension, and narrative.

Almost 20 local artists are represented in the exhibition, including Nancy Wardle, Ronald Boaks, Lynne Gaetz, Darren Cranford and Julia Kane.

Perspective shapes not only what we create, but how we understand what we see. Perspectives invites us, the viewers, to see the world as the artists do.

The Niagara Pumphouse Art Gallery is open Tuesday to Sunday from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., and is located at 247 Ricardo Street.
